Prevention of Child Trafficking Report

World's Children donors began funding the Prevention of Child Trafficking Program (PCT) in 2017. What the PCT team has accomplished will bring tears of gratitude to your eyes. And at such a small cost. Don't miss this updated 15-page report that explains the program's objectives, obstacles and outstanding achievements. Children are even helping to save their schoolmates through their vigilance. Read nine true stories of some of the children who have been rescued by this program. Thank you for funding this live-saving project.
